

An Opportunity in the MLS for Young Soccer Players from El Salvador

“Young players from the Presidential Program Integral Player, leave a different impression in every country they visit, due to their integrated formation” said Mr. Aleman, Secretary of Youth, during a meeting held in El Salvador where FESA and Houston Dynamo signed an agreement which includes the following specific items:

- A player will be signed to play and study in Houston during one year.
- Soccer events exchanges will be organized to show players’ potential.
- A game in Houston will be scheduled on the Day of the Salvadorian.
- Several friendly games will be scheduled in El Salvador with the Houston Dynamo.
- Organize recruiting sessions for Salvadorians living in Houston through soccer events in this city.

Student of the Month. Efren Paniagua. Defense

I was selected as the Student of the Month in April, because of my discipline, my commitment to the work and my research about the HIV/AIDS that I presented for the Seminar class, which is part of our high-school curriculum. All this added to my perfect school attendance and homework presentation.

I was born in San Miguel, east of my country (El Salvador). I am 16 years old and futbol is my passion. I love to study and go to the church with my family every Sunday. I live with my parents and my older sister in that beautiful city where I grew up; thanks to God we have a home and although it is simple and small, our house is full with harmony and happiness.

I came to FESA in 2005. Since then my life changed; I have to say that to be part of FESA, I passed hard physical and technical tests, stressful, however only with God, and my effort for being someone in life, I could move forward. FESA has given me the opportunity of dreaming with a career as professional soccer player and also to achieve my other great dream: to be an Architect. I play defense and I am very aggressive in my position, I like to anticipate and clear air balls well. When I grow up, I would like to be part of the Houston Dynamo and the National Team, to bring glory to my homeland El Salvador.

I want to have a family with God as our light and know how to teach my children good values, knowledge and ethic so they could be good citizens. FESA has taught me values which has helped that wherever I go, I admired because my respect for the others, my academic knowledge received from my teachers from the Foundation Educating a Salvadorian, my proper vocabulary and for being an excellent soccer player. Above of all, because an integral person.

I love to help the elderly, people with disabilities and anyone who may need a friendly hand. Every day I thank God because I am an ACHIEVER, A FESA CHAMPION.
